

MAC in Partnership with The Ismael Cala Foundation Launches “El Vuelo de la Cometa” Summer Camp Program

HOMESTEAD, FL. (July 28, 2021) - The Mexican American Council (MAC) in partnership with The Ismael Cala Foundation debuts “El Vuelo de la Cometa” (Flight of the Kite) Summer Camp Program for youth in Homestead, FL, as part of the early College and Career Prep (CCP) summer program serving the farmworker community.

“We are honored to work with Ismael Cala, The Ismael Cala Foundation and the Hispanic Star Miami to bring this high level program to our youth. This type of training and preparation will empower our future leaders to reach their full potential,” said Edward Garza, CEO of MAC.

“This is the beginning of a great partnership between the two organizations to create long-term impact for our Hispanic youth in South Florida. Thank you for the opportunity and together we will ensure the kite flies high led by a new generation of young leaders,” stated Ismael Cala, best-selling author and philanthropist, Founder of the Ismael Cala Foundation.

“El Vuelo de la Cometa” Summer Camp Program leads participants on a journey of self-knowledge and self-worth. Learning to understand the area of emotions and self-leadership are part of the transformational process. The outcome of the program is students who are motivated to learn academically, are empathetic to those around them, and develop the drive to work towards their dreams.

About Mexican American Council

The Mexican American Council is nonprofit 501(c)(3) whose mission is to ensure that every farmworker child is provided access to a quality education, the arts, and technology for a brighter future in South Florida. MAC headquarters are in Homestead, FL. For more information, visit www.mexamcouncil.org.

About Ismael Cala Foundation

Ismael Cala Foundation is a global, independent, 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization registered in the state of Florida in the United States. The organization assumes leadership in the promotion and training of children, adolescents and young people to be the leaders required by the present and future of Latin America and the Caribbean, the United States and the world. For more information, visit www.calafoundation.org.